Farmingville, NY - On Sunday, March 3, 2013, Councilwoman Connie Kepert, along with Councilman Tim Mazzei, Councilman Dan Panico, and Supervisor Ed Romaine attended the Brookhaven Town Fire Chiefs' Council Annual Installation Brunch at Majestic Gardens in Rocky Point. The Town Board members honored outgoing President John DeVito as well as the newly elected Executive Board including President John Cronin, 1st Vice President Mike Barry, 2nd Vice President Scott Thebold, 3rd Vice President James Scholl, Sergeant of Arms John Bartnik, Treasurer Joe Danowski, Secretary Frank Scibilia, and Chaplains James Vaz and Janine Roe.

"It was an honor to install, along with Judge Peter Skelos, the incoming officers of the Brookhaven Fire Chiefs Council." Said Supervisor Romaine, "I rely on the emergency management advise and expertise of this Council. Congratulations to all the new officers and thanks to the outgoing President for his years of service to the residents of Brookhaven Town."

"It was a pleasure to attend this year's Brookhaven Town Fire Chiefs' Council Installation Brunch. I thank them for all they do working to keep our communities safe," stated Councilwoman Connie Kepert.

"It was an honor to be among such a dedicated group of people who sacrifice their time and put themselves in harms way to protect life and property," said Councilman Mazzei, "I commend the Fire Chiefs Council and thank every firefighter and first responder for their service to the community."

"It is my honor to be the Brookhaven Town Council liaison to fire and emergency services," commented Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico. "Every opportunity, including this installation brunch, I thank the good men and women of our fire and emergency services departments and companies. They are a great group of selfless volunteers who are the backbones of our communities."
